PETHERS
RAINFOREST RETREAT

A romantic scene of a bride and groom walking away from the camera down a dirt path that winds through a dense, lush rainforest. The bride is wearing a long white gown and a veil, carrying a bouquet of flowers. The groom is in a dark suit. The path is flanked by tall, green trees and foliage, with sunlight filtering through the canopy in the distance. A dark green horizontal bar is positioned below the image, containing the text 'ABOUT US' and a white silhouette of a bird in flight.

ABOUT US

Nestled in the heart of five hectares of untouched subtropical rainforest on Tamborine Mountain, Pethers Rainforest Retreat is a truly one-of-a-kind wedding destination. Since opening its doors in 2002—officially inaugurated by then-Prime Minister John Howard—Pethers has been a place where couples come to celebrate love in its most natural, serene, and romantic form.

Award-winning and proudly boutique, Pethers is renowned for its unique blend of seclusion, elegance, and immersive rainforest beauty. Just over an hour from Brisbane and 30 minutes from the Gold Coast, it feels a world away—yet remains perfectly accessible for you and your guests.

Our venue was purpose-built to harmonise with its surroundings, offering a peaceful and intimate setting for wedding celebrations of all kinds.
